Champagne Philipponnat keeps this site updated for the personal use of people who are legally entitled to purchase alcoholic beverages in the countries in which they reside, and to do so in countries where the purchase of alcoholic beverages is authorised. By visiting this site, you agree to the terms and conditions set out below and you undertake to comply with them. Champagne Philipponnat may at any time amend these terms and conditions and it is up to you to re-read them each time that you visit the site. You are kindly requested to leave this site immediately if you decline to accept these terms and conditions, if you have not attained the legal age for the purchase of alcoholic beverages in the country in which you are currently located, or if you are in a country where the use of this site is not authorised. The “Protection of the Private Life of the User” forms part of the terms and conditions governing the use of this site.

Privacy and rights of access and modification of personal data:

This concerns the privacy policy adopted by Champagne Philipponnat.
“Personal Data” should be understood to mean any information that allows an individual to be identified. This is more often than not a name, address, telephone number or e-mail address.

In order to offer you appropriate services, we may be required to request your personal data. We undertake to respect your privacy and to protect any information that you provide to us. In particular, the personal data collected on the website are intended for our own use. These data are confidential and are treated as such. They may not be transferred to third parties. Your data will not, at any time, be sold, rented or passed to third parties, irrespective of the usage proposed to Champagne Philipponnat: direct marketing or general or legal information. I am and will remain the only person using such data.

Your data are not transferred outside the European Union.

Who has access to these data? User data may be transferred to third parties, e.g. partner agencies of Champagne Philipponnat and the company hosting the website www.philipponnat.com

Where are my data stored? User data may be stored by third parties, e.g. partner agencies of Champagne Philipponnat and the company hosting the website www.philipponnat.com

For how long are your data retained? The data will only be retained for the period necessary to respond to the request made.

In accordance with the French Data Protection Law of 6 January 1978 (Loi Informatique et Libertés), you have a right of access, rectification, modification and deletion in relation to any personal data that you have provided to us. You may exercise this right by sending an e-mail to the address: info@philipponnat.com or by sending a letter to: Champagne Philipponnat, BP2, 13 rue du Pont, 51160 Mareuil sur Aÿ, France.

If you have subscribed to any newsletters, you may unsubscribe as indicated below or by following the instructions included at the end of each of these e-mails when you receive them.

For further information about protection of personal data, please visit the website of CNIL, the French Data Protection Authority (<http://www.cnil.fr/>)

Champagne Philipponnat may make use of a system of “cookies”. Cookies do not enable us to identify you but, in general, to collect information during your visit to our website. This enables us to determine the sections of our website that are of interest to you.

Champagne Philipponnat will then be able to learn more about your interests and provide you with tailored information.

These “cookies” will also save you, on each occasion, from having to enter information that you have already provided to us, as long as the cookies remember that you provided us with this information on a previous date. It is possible for you to detect such cookies and, where necessary, delete them.

You may prevent cookies from being stored by deactivating this function in your browser preferences using the procedures detailed on the CNIL website.

You may exercise the rights recognised under the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) by sending an e-mail to the same address or by sending a letter to: Champagne Philipponnat, BP2, 13 Rue du Pont, 51160 Mareuil sur Aÿ, France.

You may also submit a complaint to the competent supervisory authority (CNIL) if you believe Champagne Philipponnat has failed to respect your rights.
